

Central Goods & Services Tax Rules, 2017

Rule 126 : Power to determine the methodology and procedure

The Authority may determine the methodology and procedure for determination as to whether the reduction in rate of tax on the supply of goods or services or the benefit of input tax credit has been passed on by the registered person to the recipient by way of commensurate reduction in prices.